Tybee Island Marine Science Center

Just in time for holiday gift shopping: Tybee Island Marine Science Center kicks off online auction with a Megalodon, Savannah Bananas tickets, guided tour of the Okefenokee Swamp and more (Tybee Island, GA) The Tybee Island Marine Science Center is launching an online auction on November 14, just in time for holiday gift shopping. The online auction will run through December 8 and feature a variety of items, from a Megalodon to dinner for two, artwork, guided tour of the Okefenokee Swamp, fishing charter, and more.

Maria Procopio, executive director of the Tybee Island Marine Science Center said, “The community and our board members have been great about getting some fantastic and unusual items for this auction. Monies raised from the auction will help us move closer to the grand opening of our new facility in 2021.”

The Tybee Island Marine Science Center has many sponsorship and donation opportunities for the new facility’s exhibits. For more information, please go to <https://bringingtheoutsidein.org>.

About the Tybee Island Marine Science Center: Our mission is to cultivate a responsible stewardship of coastal Georgia’s natural resources through education, conservation, and research. For more information, please go to tybeemarinescience.org.
